

Save Your Love For Me

Suckers

I get going and you say what'll I do, if you mess with someone new then its shoo fly shoo, but if your heart's still in it,
save your love for me.

My head's a tambourine, my kidney's filled with stones, and if your voice begins to irritate I'll need to be alone, but don't you take it the wrong way,
save your love for me.

This world's a colonoscopy,
save your love for me.

I don't want any heart attack,
I just want to relax,
and if you want my head up on a stake just unlock and detach, but first there's something out in the distance and it is so am azing.

Yeah it's so amazing.

(Save your body, save your mind)

I hate pressure,
I hate responsibility,
I always show up late and it takes me so long to leave, but if you're willing to accept my flaws,
save your love for me.

Oh yeah, I forgot about the jealousy, and how angry I get for reasons I only perceive, there's so much trouble brewing meanwhile,
save your love for me.

This world's a colonoscopy, save your love for me.

I will be your doctor and treat you well.

Well, so well.
