Astrogirl

Suede

A strange relationship has started A strange relationship indeed It's like a watercolor forming Between the pages of a dream

And it's calling you
It's calling me
It's calling everyone to be

In a future world with an astrogirl One on one is all you need In a future world with an astrogirl One on one is all you need

A strange experience has started Between her molecules and me It's like two seas between us forming From obsolete technology

And it's calling you
It's calling me
It's calling everyone to be

In a future world with an astrogirl One on one is all you need In a future world with an astrogirl The sky goes on and on for you and me

The sky goes on and on for you and me The sky goes on and on for you and me

In a future world with an astrogirl
There'll be no obstacles, you'll see
'Cos we'll be making friends with the supermen
The sky goes on and on for you and me

The sky goes on and on for you and me The sky goes on and on for you The sky goes on and on
