

Beautiful Loser

Suede

You belong among the wild flowers
Picked at the side of the road
You belong among the silent hours
And broken telephones

You belong among the TV screens
With the sound turned down again
You belong where there's CCTV
Watching you every day

Oh well, you beautiful loser
Oh well, you beautiful lay
Oh well, you beautiful loser
I said, you're coming down the hard way

You belong under electric lights
With the hand me down surrounds
You belong out in the countryside
With your hands deep down in the ground

Oh well, you beautiful loser
Oh well, you beautiful lay
Oh well, you beautiful loser
I said, you're coming down the hard way

Your brain is drip connected to the satellite
Your heart is not a part of your brain
Aesthetics and inventions well they pass you by Complicate your day

You belong sat on a motorbike
Doing 1 6 1 in the rain
50CC through the wild life
Getting trashed in the slow lane

Oh well, you beautiful loser
Oh well, you beautiful lay
Oh well, you beautiful loser
I said, you're coming down the hard way

Oh well, you loser
Oh well, you beautiful lay
Oh well, you beautiful loser
You're coming down the hard way
You're coming down the hard way
You're coming down the hard way
