

Everything Will Flow

Suede

Watch the early morning sun drip like blood from the day See the crazy people run, so many games to play
see the blue suburban dream under the jet plane sky Sleep away and dream a dream, life is just a lullaby - by

Oh, oh, and everything will flow oh, oh, you know everything will flow
oh, oh

Watch the day begin again whispering into the night
See the pretty people play hurrying under the light
A million cars a million trains under the jetplane sky Nothing lost and nothing gained, life is just a lullaby - by

Oh, oh, and everything will flow
oh, oh, you know everything will flow
oh, oh

Oh, oh, and everything will flow
Oh, oh, you know everything will flow
The neon lights in the night tonight will say "everything will flow"
The stars that shine in the sky tonight know "everything will flow"
The lovers kissed with an openness will say "everything will flow"
The cars parked in the hyper market know "everything will flow"
