

Savoir Faire

Suede

She lives in a house she's stupid as a mouse
And she going where the lights are on
She shaking obscene like a fucking machine
And she gone gone gone
She cooking crack giving us heart attack
And she living in a kooky show
She open your mind for the millionth time
And then go go go

She got everything she needs
She got pretty pretty feet
And she got flowers in her hair yeah yeah
She got savoir faire yeah yeah
