

These Eyes Will Watch You Die

Suffokate

we must make this sacrifice and these eyes will watch you die the accomplishment of this casualty your hopes and dreams fade away round one/let em all fall/let em all/they will not resist reality has came around now undecided no longer can i control fate ,i cut rip destroy to terminate your fucking life you will drowned in your sorrow for centuries overthrow the ones who are weakening departure,the passing, for the souls I've released an exit wound is a bloody scene duel yell
i live to watch the blood fall streams of red
all in dyer pain
suffering of the masses no justice no peace i despise-all the ones who have doubted me in life i despise-all the ones who have failed me again and when they come back/cut em off eye for and eye carnage/hatred/death the cycle of life in science gun shots of revenge scatter blood all over the place annihilation/sweeping through passing over/a million souls eternal sleep/ rotting lives carnage/hatred/murder/death
