

We Long for Your Blood

Suffokate

Dismemberment its how i get revenge im taking the pieces i value here comes the chopping block your neck is next just hope the blade makes it through

Eyelids torn off to let the truth in this aggression stems forth from my frustrations

I want to hear your last goodbyes dont look around for a rescue

Cause we all want you dead this storm of hatred cant be stopped now and your gonna suffer no one is gonna save you now

This soul is blackened no light shines in

The last chance of life you had left just came and went like a bullet through the chest

How does it feel to be strapped down lifes almost over stop breathing your out of luck

This is what when i let it all go no one is spared no one is spared i hear the voices

Hack the head the beg me saw through the neck there screaming we long for your blood
