Little Miss Perfect

Sugababes

I'm the most responsible girl that I know Never late, always on time for the show Ask anyone around me And they'll tell you just how I am, yeah

I try to tell the truth every chance that I get I never let the work I'm doing get to my head And when it came to love I thought I gave it the best I had, yeah

But somewhere I missed, somewhere I slipped Somewhere, there's a couple steps that I skipped Somehow, I told myself I didn't need anyone

But look at me now I was so busy telling everyone How good life is now that you're gone Now, it's so hard to be out on my own So, why do I feel so alone? How could I get this all wrong? I guess that 'Little Miss Perfect' Wasn't that perfect after all

Now everything around me Feels out of place Like all four walls are closing in And there's no escape

Everyday spent without you It gets harder to act like I'm okay If I could take back the things that I said If I could un-break all that we had I'd put all the pieces back together again

But look at me now I was so busy telling everyone How good life is now that you're gone Now, it's so hard to be out on my own So, why do I feel so alone? How could I get this all wrong? I guess that 'Little Miss Perfect' Wasn't that perfect after all

The world that I know is all crashing down And it's the biggest shock to me 'Cause I thought I had it all figured out So, why does my heart feel empty? Oh

I thought it was perfect But it wasn't so perfect

But look at me now I was so busy telling everyone How good life is now that you're gone Now, it's so hard to be out on my own So, why do I feel so alone? How could I get this all wrong? I guess that 'Little Miss Perfect' Wasn't that perfect after all
