

Lost in You

Sugarcult

Six days went by
Trying to forget her face
It was you and I
We were too young for these games

And all the pictures that I kept
And all the things I should have said
It was you and I
But mostly me

Lost in you
And I can't find myself again
Lost in you
And I can't find myself again

Six weeks went by
Still pretending that I'm fine
It was you and I
Holding back what's on our minds

And all the things I should have said
And all the letters left unsent
It was you and I
But mostly me

Lost in you
And I can't find myself again
Lost in you
And I can't find myself again

Six months went by
I almost forgot your face
Till they played that song tonight
The one we used to hate

Lost in you
And I can't find myself again
Lost in you
And I can't find myself again

Lost in you(I'm lost in you)
And I can't find myself again
Lost in you(I'm lost in you)
And I can't find myself again

Again
Again
