

Riot

Sugarcult

What you wanted couldn't hold us down
What we needed turned it's back so
Outloud, we're telling your secrets
Outloud, to the lovers and fees
Outloud, cause you never experienced
This is the side of us nobody see's

We're making something beautiful
Starting a riot
We've got this under our control
Starting a fight

What you wanted couldn't hold us now
What we needed all came crashing down
Down, with the lies and cover ups
Down down, to the lovers and fees
Down now, cause you never experienced
This is the side that I'll never believe in

We're making something beautiful
Starting a riot
We've got this under our control
Starting a fight
We're making something
We're taking nothing
We're starting something beautiful
Start a riot

What you wanted

We're making something beautiful
Starting a riot
We've got this under our control
Starting a fight
We're making something
We're taking nothing
We're starting something beautiful
Start a riot (hey hey)
Riot (hey hey)
Riot (hey hey)
