

Worst December

Sugarcult

It's a big mistake
50 days, 3 months away
I'd be laughing today
But your voice on the phone gives me no reason
Don't take from me
My heart is barely beating
Don't take from me
I'm falling down

All I want to do is lie in bed with you
All I really ever need is you
All I got to do is give up all I have to be with you

It's a different day
1500 miles away
Why would you want to stay?
So take a look around

All I want to do is lie in bed with you
All I really ever need is you
All I got to do is give up all I have to be with you
With you
With you
With you

All I want to do is to be close to you
All I want to do is to be next to you
All I want is you to give up all we had to be
I can't remember why I'm here
If you'd let me spend my life with you
With you

December's gone
It came and went
December's gone
It came and went
(All I really need is you)
December's gone
It came and went
(I'm waiting here for you)
December's gone
It came and went
December's gone
It came and went
