

You're the One

Sugarcult

Everybody knows that he is gonna steal the show
You better keep it in control or you'll go crazy
Back mask, spinning wax, the record had a heart attack
It made you do things that drove you crazy

You're the one
You're the one
You're the one, that's making me crazy
I'm in love, but it's only temporary

You're the one that keeps it coming when I'm running out of lov ing
I can only do it once they'll call me lazy
Take back this and that Shut your mouth my wallet's fat
I'm selling out to make another million

You're the one
You're the one
You're the one, that's making me crazy
I'm in love but it's only temporary
Temporary

You're the one

You're the one, that's making me crazy
I'm in love but it's only temporary

It's makin me crazy
I'm in love but it's only temporary
Temporary

You're the one
