

Happy Ending

Sugarland

Intro.:

Cowboys ride into sunsets, the good guy always gets the girl
Cinderella has just fit, a glass slipper that changed her world

We all know the stories, we all know the fairy tales
We all get the glory of makin' it for our-selves

Refrén:

From the be-ginnin', we're all look-in' for a happy endin'
Every dream of winnin', every love we've been in
Right from the be-ginnin', we're lookin' for a happy endin'

We've come here with nothing and take it with us the day we leave
The first and last breath don't matter, it's all the ones that are in-between
It's the reason for living, it's the reason the caged bird sings
It's why we see it in the movies, all the way to the closing scenes

Refrén:

From the be-ginnin', we're all look-in' for a happy endin'
Every dream of winnin', every love we've been in
Right from the be-ginnin', we're lookin' for a happy endin'

And all those dreamers who have come and gone
Who have reached for the stars, who have o-ver-come
You're the hope, you're the wish, you're the truth
Baby, here's the proof

Baby's born in this ghetto, oh, baby's born with a silver spoon
One tells his Mama I have a dream, one tells his Mama I'll walk the moon

Refrén:

From the be-ginnin', we're all look-in' for a happy endin'
Every dream of winnin', every love we've been in
Right from the be-ginnin', we're lookin' for

Refrén:

From the be-ginnin', we're all look-in' for a happy endin'
Every dream of winnin', every love we've been in
Right from the be-ginnin', we're lookin' for a happy endin'
