

Take Me as I Am

Sugarland

Radiator says 95,
But I ain't felt a drop of heat all night,
Here in this motel,
There ain't no tellin' me nothin'.

I come here five nights a week,
To clean the toilets and change these sheets.
My name's Maggie Duran baby ain't that somethin'.

If you want it,
Come and get it,
If you want it, come and get it,
But understand, You take me as I am.

I know these corners,
I know these streets.
Curb-side prophet there yellin' at me.
He can save my soul for a drink and a dollar.

Yeah he's yellin' about my tattoo's,
We all live with the scars we choose.
Yeah, they might hurt like hell,
But they all make us stronger.

If you want it,
Come and get it,
If you want it, come and get it,
But understand, You take me as I am.

Slow to trust, but I'm quick to love,
I wish too hard, and I give too much,
I ain't sayin' I'm perfect,
But I promise I'm worth it.

Now I'm standin' here in front of you,
Tell me boy, what you gonna do,
My name's Maggie Duran I said ain't that somethin'
