

(And Please) Stay Young

Sugarplum Fairy

My blood is warmer when you're here
And Ellie please stay young
My feet are falling I'm not there
And Ellie please stay young
Standing in the rain watch the shadow of our name
Paint myself in blood and sweat
Running? in the fire in the ashes of desire
Failing as you sigh
My blood is warmer when you're here
And Ellie please stay young
My feet are falling I'm not there
And Ellie please stay young
Catching the first train to the city make a name
Of myself and you and her
Screaming love and hate and this is the very name
We can hardly bare
My blood is warmer when you're here
And Ellie please stay young
My feet are falling I'm not there
And Ellie please stay young
We are alright now never gonna lose it
Alright now never gonna lose it alright now never gonna lose it now
My blood is warmer when you're here
And Ellie please stay young
My feet are falling I'm not there
And Ellie please stay young
You're cold so let me warm your skin
And Ellie please stay young
I love this wanna go within now!
We are alright now never gonna lose it
Alright now never gonna lose it alright now never gonna
lose it now
Ellie please stay young
