

Harder To Say I'm Sorry

Sugarplum Fairy

What do you say when all your dreams fade away?
And whom do you call, when all you want to do is fall
fall down
And it's getting harder and harder everyday It's getting harder and harder
to say I'm sorry
What can I say?
It's a price that I have to pay Myself to blame
as I'm soaking out here in the rain Fall down
And it's getting harder and harder everyday
It's getting harder and harder
to say I'm sorry
What can I say?
It's a price that I have to pay
fall down
And it's getting harder and harder
everyday
It's getting harder and harder
to say I'm sorry
What can I say?
It's a price that I have to pay
