

Rock'n'Roll Tragedy

Sugarplum Fairy

I I try to figure out
The fallen eye-tear a raindrop struck my mind
It looks so good its messed so fine
Smile I fall and close my eyes
Its pure subtle vibes hostility provide
It looked so good its messed so fine
I am so tired I haven't slept for months
Just to see your face tear my soul and so
Go shout and jive for me and I will be your
Rock n roll tragedy
Go shout and jive for me and you will see
There's nothing for us to see rock n roll tragedy
I I caught you there last night
I made up the sight a fantasy reply
I look so good its messed so fine
I am so tired I haven't slept for months
Just to see your face tear my soul and so
Go shout and jive for me and I will be your
Rock n roll tragedy
Go shout and jive for me and you will see
There's nothing for us to see rock n roll tragedy
