

The Escapologist

Sugarplum Fairy

If there was something that I said
Let me know
I got a feeling that it's wrong
'cause it's gone
This little maze and all of these complex mind games Chris Angel wouldn't find a way

And everything that I've done
seems so wrong
and everything that I've done
seems so wrong
And everyone that I loved
I dismissed
Because I'm the escapologist

If there is something I can do help me through The only thing I know for sure, I love you I'm like a child except my imagination's lost My mind is broken there's just rust

And everything that I've done seems so wrong everything that I've done
seems so wrong
and everyone that I loved
I dismissed
Because I'm the escapologist

If there is something that you hide
let me know
'Cause I might leave you all alone
Because I think that there is something that you've missed
I am an escapologist
