

The Restless Breakout

Sugarplum Fairy

Standing in a park wearing feathers
Asking people about the weather
I say ?know you cry every night?
So would I but I´m just to dry
It´s what I said
I said hey babe
I?ll buy you a drink then I?ll be fine
Fill your heart with the red wine
Running in circles
Accused of this order and murders
It?s what she said
I said hey babe
Could have a lot for your love a lot for your love a lot for your love
Well
If I knew what to say to make it go away
I say it over and over again
See the world from your eyes, then you will rise
I say it over and over again
I said hey babe I said hey babe
Walk with me babe I said hey babe
Burn marks on broken hearts
Time to run cause it?s getting dark
I know you cry every night
So would I but I?m just to dry
It?s what I said
I said hey babe
Well
If I knew what to say to make it go away
I say it over and over again
See the world from your eyes, then you will rise
I say it over and over again
I said hey babe I said hey babe
White light and rainbow nights
I see smoke from endless skies
And tears runs trough your soul
Well
If I knew what to say to make it go away
I say it over and over again
See the world from your eyes, then you will rise
I say it over and over again
Well
If I knew what to say to make it go away
I say it over and over again
See the world from your eyes, then you will rise
I say it over and over again
I said hey babe
Walk with me babe
I said hey babe I said hey babe
