

Control The Twisted Mind

Suicidal Angels

Servant of two masters
A life split in half
Confusion comes out of the eyes of weakness
Etched to my face A smile turns to evil
Consuming air till all is black

Sleeping in illusion
Unable to react
There's no way to control
The twisted mind

Swallowed deep in to disaster
A brain torn apart
Force of sanity drilled out of blood
What is this place
Life of derange
Inoculating an evil command

Sleeping in illusion
Unable to react
There's no way to control
The twisted mind

Mind fracturing collision
Nothing but cold black
Do I really live or I collapse
Before the dawn
One life is gone
Some more to go
so face the facts

Sleeping in illusion
Unable to react
There's no way to control
The twisted mind
