

Damage Control

Suicidal Tendencies

You cloud my reflections
You taint my point of view
You smother my emotions
And you poison my dreams too
And when it's time to leave me
I'm sure that you'll be proud
Cause you left me with no strength
And a whole lot of doubts

Damage control
I need damage control
Where's my damage control?
Damn it, control!
I need damage control
Where's my damage control?

(Yeah, Charlie, you might wanna get down here
We got a mess going on here
I can't really figure it out
Just when you get down here
I'll try and explain it, but, ah, oh shit!)

Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker! (x2)

Can't eat, think or drink
I so tried, can't even speak
I got no choice, cause I'm too weak
My minds' gone, it's on the bleak
It's time to conjure up all my strength
From my head down to my toes
Cause I'm in for the fight of my life
It's past time for damage control
Damage control!

Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!

No luck, it's too bad
No hope, it's beyond sad
There's no peace, left in my brain
My heart's swelled and filled with pain
So how I got myself into this place
As my pain eats away at my soul
I hope you're in a forgiving mood
Cause I need you damage control
Damn it, control!

Damage control

Damage control
Damage control

Damage control
I need damage control
Where`s my damage control?
Damn it, control!
Damage control
I need damage control!

Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker!
Sucker! (x2)

A new game, another dance
The odds still suck, my last chance
Why do I try?
It does no good
I shouldn't care, but then who would?
The last the thing, I confess to myself
Before I let my hatred blow
I could have avoided all this pain
If I followed damage control
Damage control
Damage control
Damage control
Where`s my damage control?
