

It's Not Easy

Suicidal Tendencies

Psycho, psycho, psycho
It's just the psycho, psycho

Easy, easy, it's not easy
To say what I feel when nothing seems real
Not easy, it's not easy
To be someone's friend when the pain it never ends

Not easy, it's not easy
To keep up the fight when nothing turns out right
Easy, I got to take it easy
I got to take it easy

Psycho, psycho, psycho
It's just the psycho, psycho

Easy, easy, it's not easy
To open your heart when love's torn it apart
Not easy, it's not easy
To hold your head high when you want to sit and cry
Not easy, it's not easy
To fall on your knees and say, "Lord, help me please"

Easy, I got to take it easy
Oh please, please, please, easy

Easy, easy, it's not easy
Gotta, gotta take it easy
It's not easy, it's never easy
