Send Me Your Money

Suicidal Tendencies

Lights, camera, silence on the set Tape rolling, 3, 2, 1, action Welcome to the Church of Suicidal We'll have a sermon and a wonderful recital

But before we go on there's something I must mention An important message I must bring to your attention I was in meditation and prayer last night I was awakened by a shining bright light

Overhead a glorious spirit

He gave me a message and you all need to hear it

"Send me your money," that's what he said

He said to "Send me your money"

Now if you can only send a dollar or two There ain't a hell of a lot I can do for you But if you want to see heaven's door Make out a check for five hundred or more

"Send me your money"
Do you hear what I said?
"Send me your money"

Now give me some bass, umm, yeah, that's how he likes it Now give me some silence, for all you sinners Now give me some bass, yea that was funky Now take them on home Brother Clark, send me your money

Here comes another con hiding behind a collar His only god is the almighty dollar He ain't no prophet, he ain't healer He's just a two bit goddamn money stealer

Send me your money Send it, you got to send it Send me your money

You hear what I'm saying? "Send it, send it Send me your money"

How much you give is your own choice
But to me it is the difference between a Porsche and a Rolls Royce
I want you to make it hurt when you dig into your pocket
'Cause it makes me feel so good to watch my profits rocket

Send me your money

Now dig in deep, dig real deep into your pocket I want you to make it hurt, we'll take cash, we'll take checks We'll take credit cards, we'll take jewelry We'll take your momma's dentures if they got gold in them

So whose gonna be the next king of the fakers Whose gonna take the place of Jim and Tammy Faye Bakker? See my momma, she didn't raise no fool
