

All That Meant Something

Suis La Lune

It's like the first time again
And i won't change a single thing
Just wanna feel like this again
I don't know if i will again

Not so hopeful anymore
I'm not looking forward to a thing
I used to believe that i could change
But i'm not that hopeful anymore

You took it away from me, you took it away
You took it away from me, you took it away

Can you hear my heart beat?
Press your ear against my chest and tell me that
It means i'm still here, for i don't know anymore.
Can you hear my heart beat?
Press your ear against my chest and tell me that
It means i'm still here, because i don't know if i am.

Everything you know about me
You shared it with him
Everything i shared with you
You share it with him now
Everything that was ours
You gave it to him
Everything that meant something
You took it away

It's like my feelings have run out
And i don't care about a thing
If i could just once more feel like the first
Then i wouldn't change a single thing
