

Wishes & Hopes

Suis La Lune

Tears and screams,
I wish i could rely on myself.

I want it to stop,
I want some time to catch my breath.
I want it to stop,
I want some time to catch my breath.

Better, i would like to be
Nowhere, i would like to be

Back from this,
I thought i could do better than this.
I was up on a railing
But you talked me down.

I want it to stop,
I want some time to catch my breath.
Where were you? Where were you?
When i needed you
It's too late now... Isn't it?
