Breaking the Chain

Sum 41

Here, as I stand, all the signs become so clear
To get back home again, sometimes I lose my way

Because I've got to fall and just lose it all
Am I running out of time?

I'm breaking the chain from the life I knew
Beat it black and blue each time
To be face to face with the lies I choose
Throw the truth into the light
Make no mistake, I've paid my price
I've done my time with the devil in disguise
'Cause the life I knew has a different view
Tonight, I'm breaking the chain

Days pass me by like I'm saving wasted time
I'm not all right, I think I've fallen for the lie

And as it fades to black, I'm not looking back
I'm so blinded by the light

I'm breaking the chain from the life I knew
Beat it black and blue each time
To be face to face with the lies I choose
Throw the truth into the light
Make no mistake, I've paid my price
I've done my time with the devil in disguise
'Cause the life I knew has a different view
Tonight, I'm breaking the chain

'Cause I'm tired of chasing, chasing yesterday
(How should I feel?)
Skies don't fade, they never go away
(And I'm still bleeding)
Ever step I take, all the chains I break
It brings me one step closer

(I'm breaking the chain)

I'm breaking the chain from the life I knew
Beat it black and blue each time
To be face to face with the lies I choose
Throw the truth into the light
Make no mistake, I've paid my price
I've done my time with the devil in disguise
'Cause the life I knew has a different view
Tonight, I'm breaking the chain
I'm breaking the chain
I'm breaking the chain
