

Reason To Believe

Sum 41

1. I've been waiting for something for so long
To show me the answers that I want a reason to believe in that's so strong
But I don't think that it exists (2x)

2. Yeah, give me reason to believe
This world's not a sick machine,
When everywhere's a dead end in every direction
Yeah, can you give me what I need
Or just sit and watch me bleed?
'cause after all, you can't get everything you want now
But all I would need is oooooone thing to keep me moving oooo
oon

3. Everybody's got a secret, can you tell me what is mine?
Can you tell me what you'd find, I'll tell you if you keep i t
I promise not to lie, oooh

4. Well, I have the fears, the pain and the tears I just can't hide
It all disappears, 'cause everything passes with the time
All you need is reason to believe
