

Done Forever

Summer Camp

I don't have any doubt in my head,
That you're goin' away.
I don't have any doubt in my head,
Of what you're gonna say.
I know I could've tried so much more,
But you're never gonna stay.
My blood's cold and thick and raw.

We're done forever
We're done forever
We're done forever
We're done forever

Hold me, hold me now,
Before you go.
Hold me, hold me now,
Before you go.

I'm on my own once again,
I've been waiting for this day.
I'm on my own once again.

Hold me, hold me now,
Before you go.
Hold me, hold me now,
Before you go.

And I feel it.
And I feel it.

I know I've lost everything,
I've been waiting for this day.
I know I've lost everything,
I've lost it all.

We're done forever
We're done forever
We're done forever
We're done forever
