

Down

Summer Camp

Cold nights, so sick of cold nights
Of wasting all my life
In a black house where I grew up

Hold tight, keep saying hold tight
I don't know what I'm waiting for
When it comes I still want more

And I've been locked away these great great days
And the time we spent is not our own anymore

This is my life, my life, my life
Or this is your life, your life, your life
This is my life, my life, my life
Or this is your life, your life, your life

As the world turns to 3 a.m.
Spinning round there's no hope anymore
Oh oh down
Oh oh down
Oh oh down down down

You say you're tired
Yeah, you say you're tired
And you don't know what to do
What to do cause it's all on you
You say you're tired
Keep saying you're so tired
And you don't know what to do when you're falling down
Down, down, down, down to the ground
And as the darkness falls faster on today

This is my life, my life, my life
This is my life, my life, my life
As the world turns to 3 a.m.
This is my life, my life, my life
Or this is your life, your life, your life
This is my life, my life, my life
Or this is your life, your life, your life

And as the world turns to 3 a.m.
Spinning round there's no hope
Spinning round there's no hope anymore
Oh oh down
Oh oh down
Oh oh down
Oh oh down
