

Saruman

Summoning

Saruman come forth.

I am Saruman the Wise, Saruman of many colours.

Middle days are passing,
younger days....

The nine have come forth again

A new power is rising, the victory is at hand and there will be rich reward for thoser who aid it.

By night or day. Are we not both members of a high and ancient order (most excellent in Middle Earth).

The friedship of Saruman and the power of Orthanc (can not be l ightly thrown aside),
you have won a battle but not a war.

Will you have peace with me. And all the aid that my knowledge, founded in long years can bring.

Good days, come back by night or day
