

Song About an Angel

Sunny Day Real Estate

[Man:]
So I say still away
Sleep close my eyes
An image of your face
Traced in white sand
Underneath undefined
I lay down
Arms outstretched
I embrace the fall
And all the time I tried
To let you know
Discomfort comes clearly

Woh (5x)
Sometimes you see right through me

[Angel:]
Words, words

You\'re married to that
You\'re married to that
You\'re married to your pain
[x2, second time in the background]

[Man:]
Although you hit me hard I come back
The earth cries and I call
On the inside

Running behind
Which one will I face?
Run behind
Which one will I....

[Angel:]
Thin comfort in what I say
My back is turned
I halo my soul for a while
And all the time I tried
To let you know
Discomfort comes clearly
When I shout

[Man:]
Woh (5x)
Sometimes you see right through me

[Angel:]
Words, words

You\'re married to that
You\'re married to that
You\'re married to your pain
[x2, second time in the background]

[Man:]
Although you hit me hard I come back

The earth cries and I fall
On the inside

Running behind
Which one will I face?
Run behind
Which one will I....
