

Refresh My Memory

Sunny Sweeney

Refresh my memory, won't you please
Aren't you the one that means the world to me
Darling, can't your kisses bring me to my knees
Refresh my memory, won't you please

Oh, I think I need reminding
It's been a long, long time
Since I held you in my arms
It's misty in my mind

But it could all come flooding back
Just to touch might be enough
Cause I believe that you might be
Somebody that I love

Refresh my memory, won't you please
Aren't you the one that means the world to me
Darling, can't your kisses bring me to my knees
Refresh my memory, won't you please

Oh I've been trying to recall
What love is all about
I see that smiling on your face
And it's coming to me now

Refresh my memory, won't you please
Aren't you the one that means the world to me
Darling, can't your kisses bring me to my knees
Refresh my memory, oh refresh my memory
Refresh my memory won't you please
