

Uninvited

Sunny Sweeney

The music stopped
The moment I walked in
Everybody was looking at me
Like I shouldn't have come

Got the invitation
From the friend of a friend
Went and found a pretty red dress
But I didn't know what I'd done

To make whispers move
From lips to ears
Faster than I could catch on
Make everybody stare through me
Like I wasn't here
And wishing that I was gone
Don't know what I did wrong
But when I walked through the crowd
They all divided
Somebody could've told me
I was uninvited
I was uninvited

I can't find anywhere
To sit down or get away
Maybe I should just leave right now
But my mama would tell me to stay

When the whispers move
From lips to ears
And I don't know
Where they're coming from
And everybody stares through me
Like I wasn't here
And wishing that I was gone
Don't know what I did wrong
But when I walked through the crowd
They all divided
Somebody could've told me
I was uninvited

Well the whispers moved
From ear to ear
As I headed for the door
No one said a word
As I fought back tears
Wondering what I came here for
Just when I went around the corner
Suddenly you appeared
Nobody told me
Somebody should've told me
Why didn't they tell me
You were here
You were here
