

Aim For The Kill

Sunrise Avenue

Oh no, driven by alcohol and need
Oh no, trying to convince you not to leave
Who's gonna be the first one to let go?
Who's gonna be on my side of the door?

Oh yeah, the last dance was so slow but worked pretty well
I ought to say something but I'm out of words, oh hell
So who's gonna be the sad one if you go?
And leave me on the wrong side of the door

I'm just another guy trying to fill the night
Aim for the kill, I aim for the kill
I'm just a normal guy, we're just the classic line
Here for the thrill, I aim for the kill

I'm coming completely clean with you
Don't wanna insult you with anything but the truth
Okay, here's the deal, I wanna apologize for coming on this strong
I might be rushing things but it's been too long
Who's gonna be the first one to let go?
Baby, who's gonna be the first one?

I'm just another guy trying to feel the night
Aim for the kill, I aim for the kill
I'm just a normal guy, we're just the classic line
Here for the thrill, I aim for the kill

(I aim for the kill)

Oh no, you're staring at me waiting for my final war
You know how this will end real soon and I know you won't be strong
Baby, feel my heartbeat, heartbeat breaking, breaking me in two

I've been dying for this moment for too long with someone like you

I'm just another guy trying to fill the night
Aim for the kill, I aim for the kill
I'm just a normal guy, we're just the classic line
Here for the thrill, I aim for the kill

I aim for the kill, I aim for the kill
I aim for the kill, I aim for the kill
