

Bad

Sunrise Avenue

I got this feeling
I'm lost somehow
I'm sailing all the seas
I'm feeling holy
You make me alive
By driving on the wrong side

I just feel I'm really losing my mind

We're in the moonlight
You take me again
You hold me like your own
I can't believe it
You make me begin
I slide in the game you're playing

I just feel I'm really losing my mind
I just feel I'm really losing my mind

This can't be right
This can't be fair
You make me do the dirty things I usually don't dare
This is not me
And it makes me mad
You have that something on your skin you know
You always make me bad

Yea, pull my head right
You got me again
Sparks in the air around
You do it so fine
I'm being taken into the tunnel of dark

I just feel I'm really losing my mind

This can't be right
This can't be fair
You make me do the dirty things I usually don't dare
This is not me
And it makes me mad
You have that something on your skin you know
You always make me ...

This can't be right
This can't be fair
You make me do the dirty things I usually don't dare
This is not me
And it makes me mad
You have that something on your skin you know
You always make me bad

You have that something on your skin you know
You always make me ... bad
You always make me bad
Oh, you always make me bad ... bad ... bad
