

If I Fall

Sunrise Avenue

I call the strikes of lightning I'm sick and tired of waiting for the bells to play my end I'm high above the ground now
I ended up here somehow reaching for something else

If I fall, will you be there, when I come to my senses
If I fall, will I fade away alone
If I fall, will the demons or the angels take me
If I fall

I hear the train approaching It's speeding up towards me to punch me off the ledge you know that you can stop me just say the word and I'm free and save me from this mess

If I fall, will you be there, when I come to my senses
If I fall, will I fade away alone
If I fall, will the demons or the angels take me
If I fall

If I fall, will you be there, when I come to my senses
If I fall, will I fade away alone
If I fall, will the demons or the angels take me
If I fall
