

My Girl Is Mine

Sunrise Avenue

Little steps follow me all through my life,
little smile, little sunshine.
I think no one could be better than her.

Little boys with their toys try to get her heart,
little boys won't get far.
They can't get her skin and the sweet laughter.

Chorus:
Don't believe you're better than me.
My girl is mine.
Can't you see she's loving just me?
It's obvious you cannot win with me.

Every day, every way she is my little pie.
She is just treating me right,
and I'd do anything just to keep her safe.

You can look, you can undress her in your minds,
you can look, but you can't bite.
You can't take my princess away, you snakes.

Chorus:
Don't believe you're better than me.
My girl is mine.
Can't you see she's loving just me?
It's obvious you cannot win with me.

Don't believe you're better than me.
My girl is mine.
Can't you see she's loving just me?
It's obvious you cannot win with me.

Don't believe you're better than me.
My girl is mine.
Can't you see she's loving just me?
It's obvious you cannot win with me.

Don't believe you're better than me.
My girl is mine.
Can't you see she's loving just me?
It's obvious you cannot win with me.

Don't believe you're better than me.
My girl is mine.
Can't you see she's loving just me?
It's obvious you cannot win with me.
