

The Right One

Sunrise Avenue

1. I don't want you around me today, I just said,
'cause I need air I don't wanna share
my life with you this way.
I didn't need to believe that we are something more,
you were just you and we weren't true
until you walked away.

R: You know it's the right one, when you lose some-one and you feel so ashamed how you just didn't get it right.
It's always the right one, when you miss some-one and it hurts like hell and you know you were just blind.

2. I would break every wall in the world to get you back.
No, I can't sleep but I'm not awake,
I'm feeling way too bad.
I can't stand anything that reminds me of you and I just can't stand my friends anymore, who say that I'll be OK soon.

R: You know it's the right one...

I miss you every day much more than I can say.
I hate the world today, it took you far away.

R: You know it's the right one... (3x)
