

Bring the Bright Lights

Sunset Sons

I sold myself to you
The filthy creatures too
If I tame the beast within Would you pray to save my sins
We're lost, but I'm not scared Confused, but we're prepared As I take my final breath oohooh
I'll bring the bright lights
I'll stand by your side
I'll make it alright
oohooh x4
The righteous man he falls, but stands to brave the cause
His hands they bleed no lies, and he says never let the demons grow
Don't you want to take yourself beyond the ropes Light the fire, from the ashes of the hopes, the dreams, the hurt, the love, the pain that burn you tonight
I'll bring the bright lights
I'll stand by your side
I'll make it alright
oohooh x3
I'll bring the bright lights
I'll stand by your side
I'll make it alright
I'll bring the bright lights? x4
oohooh x4
I'll bring the bright lights?
I'll stand by your side
we'll make it alright
oohooh x4
