

I'll find how to figure out the truth,
I know a part of you can smell the proof,
So, I'm adjust to the lies and cover up the cries
She's the only girl to open up my mind.
Follow the road and find an open door,
For all the chaos just trying avoid the floor
i bet my back to in as i can lie one sin
I got one more step that a hell will push me in
All I wanted, all i wanted was you
All I wanted, all i wanted was you
So I take my time, to realize what i did wrong
So let me know should i stay or should i go?
