

Release me from the nightmare
I'm naked in my own dream
You look good in pleasure
You dance like a machine

Time's ticking, counting nightlife
I pass the sign 'don't hesitate'
The first to die is the winner
The deathface on the barricade

At the end of the tunnel
There's suppose to be a light
What to do once we get there?
Cold drama of the night

Kick in the chest, you're mayhem
Punch in the face, then you disappear
In the shadow of deathwish alley
Will we die like machines?
Will we die like machines?
Will we die like machines?
Will we die like machines?
Will we die like machines?

And I know we have to go
Back to the place we stay
Where we belong

We wanna live another life
But we always have to say
Say goodbye

Please don't ask me why and who i am
I am anything you wanna see
God save us, the scum is back!
Keep it how it used to be

I'm fuelled by days of wasted time
Destiny is cheap fuck whore
There is no future, no yesterday
No nothing, no back door
