

Riot of Misfits

Sunshine

riots, someone thought a good day to die watch progress in their eyes ticky ta ticky ticky ta watch out where they're coming from and shut the door tight every morning demons of light night keep them down whatever's underground the night will save you do you really wanna fight every time when i am feeling low black butterflies overdose insanity always starts the revolution every time when i am feeling high it's not the dope just someone's pain let's go insane and start a revolution someone's going to leave the room fear is a shallow grave red eyes they got ya i'll engrave your name into wet concrete but you have to sometimes visit in my dreams every time :... she goes too far cuts for luck she's tight have fears and thoughts sensing a wicked night don't mess with me you thought you can but you won't this is a war zone and the gun needs another load ticky ticky ta ticky ticky ta it's time ticky ticky ta ticky ticky time to blow let's riot riot every time when i am feeling low black butterflies overdose insanity always starts the revolution terrified and challenged brat you got the feeling it's not alright to be my bitch and let me get in every time when i am feeling high it's not the dope just someone's pain let's go insane and start a revolution crack heads at the parking lot just a couple of drinks and i can hear ya don't mess with me stay calm and chill we can chat fuck but never cross the line every time