

Cloudberries

Super Furry Animals

She came into the room, didn't know her name
How I danced inside, no one to confide
In the darkest winter
I made a sound like a long lost humming bird
Took a circle of friends to the village square
Old love triangles made us so aware
Of a distant era but we're still here
To sing as humming birds