

Superglue all the cash machines
Stitch them up, think it over
Hills that should have been scaled before
All the bankers got connected
Two for the price of fun
For time that's sanitised
(Sanitised)
Soon you're number one
And see through satan's eyes
(Sanitised)
Economical ego trip
Fit to size with a glass ceiling
Bordering on meticulous
Got to pace with grade with directive
Two for the price of fun
For I get sanitised
(Sanitised)
Soon you're number one
And see through satan's eyes
(Sanitised)
Two for the price of fun
For life that's good and sanitised
Soon you're the number one
And see right through satan's eyes
