

Vilimus vacation
I don't need no inoculation
I just jump in my car and go
For how long? I do not know
The Euro Zone is my home
Passed my driving test last year
You know it took me some years to get there
It was my fourth time around
And I was in perfect mind of sound
Underneath my chair is the road to her
If it's not crap trance on the radio
Then it's problem rock on every show
You know they're go no more lows to go
They're making too much money
And taking too much blow your mind is behind
Fly away in my silver Bluebird
Some would argue that it's gray
Fly away in my silver Bluebird
Sleep in lay-bys on the way
Well, it's Solvent Abuse Awareness Week
At the clinic in a Berlin backyard
Sleek as the big lump on my head
I could really do with a bath and a bed
But underneath my chair is the road to her
Reach my destination
With no satellite navigation system
Just a map and a clear mind
If I run out of bucks maybe, I'll drive a truck
But it's a lonely way to make some pay
Fly away in my silver Bluebird
Some would argue that it's gray
Fly away in my silver Bluebird
Sleep in lay-bys on the way
Fly, fly away
Fly, fly away
Fly, fly away
Valet! Valet!
