

Walk You Home

Super Furry Animals

Can't forget that smile
Can't believe we met
Such a sudden kiss and you never even said goodbye

The future ain't what it used to be
I'll always think of you lovingly

Seasons change
And rearrange
A new light shines
(If she read my mind)

"You could be drinking with me
So why don't you go up and ask?"

I'm so very shy I couldn't look at her in the eye

When the lights came on I knew it was time to go
One thing I know I must never do ever again is delay
In asking you if I could ever be able to (if I might ever be)
I don't know (I don't know what to say)
Shit, I've fucked up again (I've fucked up again)

I wanna walk you home tonight
Please can I walk you home tonight
I've been scared of asking you just in case
You might let me down girl
Don't let me down girl
