

Sometimes they call me the dealer
I mean I deals in ideals
You may consult me if you have the fear
I'm just as phased as any other
I have some wings but I have no feather
I flew east to find myself a guru
I won't decide if tomorrow'll do
Take your coat and wrap it 'round you
Protection from what surrounds you
For every thought there's a little maybe
And I'm still confused as a baby
Sometimes they'll ask me some questions
I mean I give them suggestions
There will be no fee for the consultation
I'm just as phased as any other
I've got some wings but I have no feather
I flew east to find myself a guru
I won't decide if tomorrow'll do
Take your coat and wrap it 'round you
Protection from what surrounds you
For every thought there's a little maybe
And I'm still confused as a baby
I'm still confused as a baby
Tell me what you want, I'll wrap it up for you
Tell me what you need, I'll wrap it up for you
I'm just as phased as any other
I've got some wings but I have no feather
I flew east to find myself a guru
I won't decide if tomorrow'll do
Take your coat and wrap it 'round you
Protection from what surrounds you
For every thought there's a little maybe
And I'm still confused as a baby
I'm still confused as a baby
I'm still confused as a baby
I'm still confused as a baby
