

Rise

Superbus

Rise, it's more enough then
And let me entertain you
Blind, that's why you laugh at
You hate me more than ever
You are my mind offender
You are my agony
I like you more than ever
Please, please stay close to me

Refrain

I want you back, no matter what
She is a fallen from my eyes
I want you now, no matter how
Thought that we could leave in rise
You blow me away (2x)
You blow me away and I want you back today

Cry, it's more enough then
And let me bother you one more time
I know you're crying
I know you're complicated
You are my mind offender
You are my agony
I like you more than ever
Please, please stay close to me

Refrain

Today...

I want you back, I want you x2
I want you back! Meet you x2
I want you back, no matter what
I want you
I want you now, no matter how
I want you
Blow me away! Meet you x2
I want you
