

I don't even wonder if they're gonna put me under Cause you're here now and I'm on fire
Got no recollection of his holy words' infection
Throwing sparks now 'cause I'm on fire
I come down again take you in again
There's nothing to regret now
Breathe you in like a cigarette
Now dream

Every time you fix me when the fascination hits me
And I'm tripping around your head
One more resurrection after living that rejection
Didn't kill me, because I'm dead
