

Evening of the Day

Supergrass

It is the evening of the day
See the daylight turned away
Then I'm looking up at you
See that everything that's true
I'm a thousand miles away
On another sunny day
As I'm looking at the view
All I'm thinking of is you
If she's not on that three fifteen
Then I'm gonna know what sorrow means
If she's not on that three fifteen
Then I'm gonna know what sorrow means
Is this the parting of the ways?
Summer light and daisy chains
As I'm looking up at you
See that everything that's true
On the mountains, on the plains
Railway lines and fierce [Incomprehensible]
As I'm looking at the view
All I'm thinking of is you
If she's not on that three fifteen
Then I'm gonna know what sorrow means
If she's not on that three fifteen
Then I'm gonna know what sorrow means
It is the evening of the day
See the daylight turned away
As I'm looking at the view
Feel my heart is growing, oh so
If she's not on that three fifteen
Then I'm gonna know what sorrow means
If she's not on that three fifteen
Then I'm gonna know what sorrow means
He's so stoned
Doesn't really know what he's on about
Maybe he should go and lay down
He's so stoned
Doesn't really know what he's on about
Maybe he should go and lay down
Run away
She'll be over here in a minute
I'm going before she comes over
